Confidentiality Policy and Consent Form

M.A.D Therapy is committed to ensuring appropriate confidentiality and privacy in matters relating to the information in which you share with us as a client of our service. In order to provide you with quality service, we may need to collect information about you and your child to thoroughly assess, evaluate and provide therapy. This means we need to collect some personal information from you as well as some ongoing notes to document sessions.

Confidentiality

All personal information gathered by M.A.D Therapy during the provision of the services will remain confidential and secure except when:

1. It is subject to subpoena by a Federal Court, or
2. Failure to disclose the information would place your child or another person at risk (all therapists at M.A.D Therapy are Mandatory Reporters); or
3. Your prior approval has been obtained to discuss with another professional or agency (e.g. a GP, a teacher or other allied health/mental health professionals) or a non-professional person (e.g. a family member) to facilitate communication and best possible care and treatment for your child

   M.A.D Therapists may want to discuss aspects of your personal information with peers and/or senior colleagues for supervision purposes in order to gain additional strategies to serve our clients' best possible treatment outcome. In this situation, our clients' anonymity would be preserved.

I, _____ parent or guardian of _____:

- understand the reasons for the collection of my personal information and the ways in which the information may be used and disclosed and I agree to that use and disclosure.
- agree to my child's commencing therapy service with therapists at M.A.D Therapy
- give permission to M.A.D Therapy to exchange information with other supporting professionals for the purposes of supporting my child
- give my consent for our child and family information being used (with anonymity) to support best practice.
- understand that it is my choice as to what information I provide and that withholding or falsifying information might act against the best interests of my child's assessment and therapy progress.
- am aware that I can access my child's personal and treatment information on request and if necessary, correct information that I believe to be inaccurate.
